

Latest update from January 15th 2025

Based on the latest guidelines from the Danish Tax authorities from January 15th, it is clearly stated, that all fishing vessels in Danish ports must pay the new CO2 tax.

As a consequence of the latest guidelines, we can not offer CO2 tax free fuel to any fishing vessels in Danish land or maritime territory within the Danish 12 nautical mile limit.

Read the latest guidelines from the Danish Tax authorities \(Skat\) here \(Danish\),

It is our strong belief, that this goes against EU regulations, and we will continue our discussions with the Danish authorities - along with other stakeholders in the industry - to find a solution that both accomodates the fishing industry as well as the environment.

The new CO2 tax